1. <<To the chief Musician, [A Psalm] of David.>> The fool hath said in his heart, [There is] no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, [there is] none that doeth good.

² The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, [and] seek God.

³ They are all gone aside,
they are [all] together become filthy: [there is] none that doeth good, no, not one.

⁴. Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people [as] they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

⁵ There were they in great fear: for God [is] in the generation of the righteous.

⁶ Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD [is] his refuge.

⁷ Oh that the salvation of Israel [were come] out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, [and] Israel shall be glad.
